

NiBS SEWA INITIATIVE

Project DIGANTAR

To empower our students and enable them to experience the joy of learning and sharing,
of caring and belonging
and receiving and giving.

The Journey

- Our principal, Ms. Charu Wahi, visited Digantar Vidyalaya - an alternative school about 30 kms from Jaipur in Rajasthan in September 2016
- Decided on a collaborative partnership with Digantar for our NiBS SEWA (Social and Environmental Welfare and Action) programme.

This was based on the fact that both the schools have similar:

- Philosophy and vision
- Teaching approach in the class room
- Deep rooted commitment towards the community

The Announcements

- Announced on Children's Day 2016 to the students.
- Circular sent to parents
- Partnership letter was signed between NiBS and Digantar Vidyalyaya
- Students from Ankur to XII were introduced to the project through PowerPoint presentations/ discussions movies/ Learning Together /Circle time

Do more than care. Help

Dear parents

As a part of the SEWA initiative the Didi's and Bhaiyas of class VI are helping the students of Diganter school Jaipur by making board games. We request you to send dice and counters for the project.

Thank you for helping with the project

Day 3

Our LEARNING

On our second day, the students became more comfortable and confident while interacting with us. They had incredible grasping quality and were able to understand the rhymes that we explained. While our presentation...

Today was also an amazing day and I enjoyed every bit of it. My main area of focus was conducting the presentation and tell children about our school. I also sat with children and taught them rhymes and songs, the fact that amazed me was that they were more fast in learning. The children...

• You don't need many to be happy
• You should be keen to learn

“Do more than belong: participate. Do more than care: help. Do more than believe: practice. Do more than be fair: be kind. Do more than forgive: forget. Do more than dream: work.”

We are also glad that our journey together does not end here- we look forward to visit Digantar again with our students.
